Service request triage: end-to-end workflow

Who does what once the prototype is in use. The script prepares everything; people check, approve and send.

Done by a person · Done by the script · Decision

Routine rows go straight to "Check and send". Only flagged rows need a decision.

Inside the script: triage.py logic

What happens to every request when the script runs. Rules come from rules.csv, so they can change without code changes.

